1. In accordance with Rule 8001¹, I, a pro se impaired creditor, am applying for permission to pay the filing fee to appeal to the district court in installments. The fee to appeal to the district court is $255.

2. At this time, I am unable to pay the filing fee except in installments.

3. In my home State of California, I have proceeded in the litigation that directly relates to this bankruptcy case in informa pauperis status.

¹ Pursuant to Rule 1006, there is a provision to accept installments to pay for petitions to bankruptcy. I was unable to find the application to proceed informa pauperis on this court's website, so I used the form I located, which is this one-to pay in installments.

4. I propose the following terms for the payment of Appeals filing fee of $255:

On or before June 26, 2007, I make a $60 payment to the Clerk of the Court.

On or before July 26, 2007, I make a $65 payment to the Clerk of the Court.

On or before August 26, 2007, I make a $65 payment to the Clerk of the Court.

On or before September 26, 2007, I make a $65 payment to the Clerk of the Court.

The number of installments proposed shall not exceed (4), and the final installment shall be payable not later than 120 days after filing the Notice of Appeal. For cause shown, the court may extend the time of any installment.

5. I understand that if I fail to pay any installment when due, my bankruptcy appeal may be dismissed and only reinstated for cause.
